Are you interested in collaborating with a strategic business analyst skilled in evidence-based, data-driven business models for your informed decision-making?

If so, here I am! 😎

But you may wonder why our partnership would be exceptional?

Well, with 10+ years of experience spanning large global finance institutions and small nonprofit firms, I possess a distinct perspective 🧐 towards tailored analytics, including a focus on businesses like YOURS. Guided by the principles of quantitative and economical methodologies, I channel my enthusiasm for innovative problem-solving into diverse domains. Armed with an MBA and an MSc in Data Analysis & Visualization, my professional trajectory ranges from navigating global corporate intricacies to 5+ years of accommodating Airbnb guests from all over the world in my own apartment, all while showcasing my versatile data skills ensuring efficient operation in various circumstances. Dedicated to community growth and synergy while being a spirited go-getter, I bring not only data expertise and disruptive approaches with statistical insight, but also vibrant energy to the team — making me your alternative choice for a 'personality hire' too! 😊 Ready to elevate your team to the next level of success? Check out my media platforms (QR code in the back) and contact me at shot.mba@gmail.com. I look forward to discussing more with you!

Thanks for reading and have a wonderful rest of your day! ✨

With ❤️, Sho'
